

Central Board of Secondary Education 2, Community Centre, Preet Vihar, Delhi, India

26.07.2016

The new CBSE chairman assumes charge

Shri Rajesh Kumar Chaturvedi, IAS took over as the new chairman of CBSE today.

Sharing the vision and role of CBSE in school education, Shri Chaturvedi emphasised on the need for improving quality of education in schools across the country with ample thrust upon teacher quality to sustain improvement in the standard of education. One of the foremost priorities will also be to make CBSE as a modern and multidimensional front ranking organisation among other issues.