It has come to the notice of Central Board of Secondary Education that a few CBSE affiliated schools are in receipt of email(s) captioned "As per CBSE official Syllabus Free Teacher's Training on AI (Practicals) and Advance Python". It also mentions that participants will receive a complimentary book on AI and Python.

The email directs recipients to a Google Form that asks for sensitive information, including details of trustees, CBSE city coordinators, and the strength of the school.

Please be advised that CBSE has not issued any such email. We urge you to ignore and delete any such communication to protect your personal and professional information.

Thank you for your attention.

Secretary, CBSE
